

Our last Social Paint is

Friday, March 31st from 4-6pm at Spokane Art Supply

The good weather is approaching and plein air events are coming up so this Friday will be our last social painting time. It doesn't matter if you haven't come before, join us and invite a friend. It's a great way to introduce someone to SWS.

The National Juried Show Exhibit at the MAC opens April 8th. There are still openings to sign up to docent.
