Come prepared to explore, be bold, carefree and no-holds-barred creativity. Using the abstract genre in painting to find out the versatility of Acrylics. Learning about the various mediums and uses of Acrylics, opening up the world of abstraction, learning how composition is so, so, important from abstraction to representational. This is not a product-oriented workshop, but a time to add to your toolbox of creative tools. But above all, having two days to inspire each other and create with your fellow artists.
